NUMBER 15.

From England to France.

Kind Editor—If you can find room in the good old REGISTER for a few lines, I will try to give a few of the details of a trip to Paris and the battle fields. On the 5th of August I was granted five days' leave. One of my best shipmates and I set out for Paris. Leaving Liverpool at 1:30 P. M. arrived in London about 5 P. M. There we had to stop for the night. On the morning of the 6th we set out again, leaving London at eight A. M.; going by way of Fankstone and Boulogne. Got to Boulogne about 1:00 P. M. Got a train at 1:30 for Paris. Arrived in Paris at 6 P. M. There we stopped for another night.

Awoke at five A. M. and set off by train to Soissons. From there we got army trucks to take us out to the front lines. The lines that we visited were known as the "old Hindenburg lines." This part of the fields was not policed yet so there were many sights to see.

There was unused ammunition enough to carry on a good battle or two. They told us it was dangerous to touch anything as the Germans were the last to hold the lines. Anyway I ventured to get a few souvenirs.

We come upon a dead German in the trenches. His head and right shoulder and arm was gone. There were only his feet and legs from the knees down that looked natural. This portion had the shoes and puttees on, and looked like it could have been that of a live man. Strange to say, but when one comes upon the body of the enemy what a strange sort of sympathy will creep over him.

The barbed wire and entanglements were just as they were when they drove "Fritz" out. On this one particular spot the lines were taken and retaken from time to time. There were all kinds of shells, German, American and French, although the Americans did not fight where I was, but held the lines south and east of that point.

After spending the day out there we then went back to Paris for the night. Then on the morning of the 8th we spent going to places around Paris and at 1:00 P. M. we went to the city of Versailles. Visited the palace of Louis Fourteenth. In one of the apartments of this old place the peace terms were signed. This was known as the "Hall of Mirrors." I went all through this old palace. There were many strange apartments of different styles and shapes. Also, many strange portraits that covered the walls and ceilings. On leaving the palace we went out across the King's old promenade grounds.

After leaving this we again went back to Paris. And on the morning of the 9th we went to the Pantheon where all the war paintings are. This, no doubt, is the greatest piece of architectural work in the world. It consists of all the different nations of the allied war. They were all in colors that made them look almost real, the landscape and little villages in the background were really great. At noon we started on the homeward voyage which lasted 18 hours. We saw the great 34 Division loaded on trains and headed for Brest, where they will get a boat for the U. S. They informed us that only the First Division was left in France.

We reached our destination on Sunday, 10th. We were there seven days while the rest of our shipmates went on their leave. Finally they all got back and on the day before we left we all went out to tell our Liverpool "duckies" goodbye. This was a sad affair, indeed, as we all knew that we would never meet again. So on the 18th we left Liverpool for Brest with quite a number of war brides aboard. We stopped over night at Brest, took on mail and a few soldiers and then set sail for the U. S. A. with our homeward bound pennant flying high. We are now about forty-eight hours from New York. The trip has been very nice and calm.

Beware the Get-Rich-Quick-Man.

In these days when money is much easier to get than in days that many can remember, the "get-rich-quick" plan is a favorite temptation held alluringly before the public. The Treasury Department has recently issued a bulletin dealing with this pernicious evil. The really wise person who can not afford to "take a chance" finds in the War Saving Stamp an investment to his liking. He may invest as little as $5.00 or he may invest up to $1,000, and the little "baby bond" is safeguarded just as much as the $1,000 bond—drawing per cent. compounded annually, and is absolutely safe.

Who Knows the Parties Concerned Herein?

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

He not only broke the engagement, but he failed to pay her for the butter and eggs she had let him have on credit. Mrs. Cora Fay, a widow of Ironton, Mo., alleges in a suit for $7709.60 filed here today against Jacob L. Schoppe of 3552A Connecticut street, agent for the Phoenix Fire Insurance Co., with offices at 508 Merchants-Laclede Building. One reason he did not keep his pledge to marry was because he already had a wife, the petition states.

The bill for heart balm amounts to $5000, and that for butter, eggs and poultry to $725, in the suit. So fond was she of Schoppe that she let the produce run from 1912 to 1918 without demanding payment, according to her petition.

She further alleges that he borrowed certain amounts from her at various periods, now amounting to a total of $818, and she declares it was at his instance that she placed mortgages totaling $850 on the farm, on which $1186.60 is now due.

Schoppe today said that his wife is dead. He declined to say whether he was a widower on October 1, 1915, the date on which Mrs. Fay says he proposed. He said that Mrs. Fay is about 43 years old, and that he has known her for about 20 years. His wife never met Mrs. Fay, he said. Schoppe said he advanced Mrs. Fay about $4000 "for various things," and that she owes him more than $3000.

UNITED DOCTORS SPECIALIST

Brings the knowledge of their Organization and experience in their Successful Treatment of

THOUSANDS OF CASES

Offers Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors is an organization of reputable, licensed physicians. They are all specialists in the treatment of certain diseases. They treat without surgical operations diseases of all internal organs, stomach, intestines, constipation, piles, liver, spleen, heart, nerves, skin, rheumatism, sciatica, goitre, tape-worm, leg ulcers and all long standing, deep seated diseases. Many years experience. The complete record of thousands of cases successfully treated prove that their methods are right. They were among the first to earn the name,

"BLOODLESS SURGEONS"

Each staff member has at his command the knowledge and resources of the organization. Many people suffer from diseases that can be alleviated just because they cannot afford to go to high priced Specialists and Hospitals at a long distance from their home. No community has a sufficient number suffering from these diseases to support special Hospitals for their treatment and cure. The United Doctors have solved the problem. Their highly trained Specialists go to each community and will advise a proper course of treatment for the sufferers and instruct them how to take care of themselves at home. No matter what you have been told or the experience you had with other physicians, consult him on his visit. If your case is incurable he will give advice that may stay and relieve the disease. Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their parents or guardians.

Wants the Women's Names.

Secretary of State Sullivan is trying to get all of the data for the Blue Book in this month, in order that it may be printed and ready for distribution by the last of December. In this county the organization of Democratic and Republican Women's committees has not been perfected (or reported), and it is necessary, if the names are to appear in the Blue Book, that action be taken at once and report made to Secretary Sullivan.

Automobiles in Missouri.

The high cost of gasoline has no deterrent effect on the automobile business in Missouri. Secretary of State Sullivan reports 225,954 licenses issued up to September 1, as against 188,040 during the whole of last year. For these licenses the good roads fund is credited with $1,040,644.10.

Goodland Items.

Some of our prosperous farmers are filling their silos. Others are saving fodder, or stripping cane preparatory to making molasses.

Elmer Stroup is working for Dick Nail.

Eugene Pryor's address is Goodland. G. G. Adams sold a span of work mules for $325.

W. H. Smith and family with our teacher, Miss Goforth, attended the picnic at Belgrade.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowers, Saturday, August 29, a daughter. Also, to Mr. and Mrs. Kerry White of Redmondville the same day a little daughter.

Rev. Bennett is holding a revival in the church at Goodland. People are apparently hungry for the gospel as the house is packed each night. Many are seeking the way of salvation and some have entered the narrow path that leads to glory and to God.

Randolph Adams left home last week to accept the position of principal in De Soto High School.

Mr. Burnham made a flying trip to Goodland on Thursday seeking for a teacher for Ironton High School.

Mrs. Wm. Vandill has returned from St. Louis much improved in health.

We learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Marian Johnston of Reynolds County. She lived alone and her clothing caught fire and she was burned so badly that soon death came to relieve her of her sufferings. Mrs. Johnston was about 80 years old, and preferred to remain in her own home. Her children have our sympathy.

A very enjoyable day was spent at Goodland at the dinner given to our returned soldiers. God bless our dear boys.

Mrs. Cora Brooks and children spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Hardin, at Belgrade.

Mrs. Walsh lately received from relatives in Ohio, a portable organ, which she is enjoying very much.

Charley Carleton has moved back to Oates.

The three-year-old son, Ralph, of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis died at Oates, where Mrs. L. was visiting. "Suffer little children to come unto me."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. White have returned from a visit to their old home in Wisconsin.

Clifford Adams had business in Bellevue on Tuesday.

Married—In Lewistown, Montana, July 17, Mr. Claude Gaunt, of Indiana, and Miss Florence Brooks, late of Goodland. TIMOTHY HAY.

Women Give Out

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Ironton woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Ironton woman's experience.

Mrs. Frank Mayes, gave the following statement in October, 1911: "Kidney and bladder complaint came on me and I was caused annoyance by the way my kidneys acted. I was unable to stoop or lift on account of the pain and bearing down feeling in my back. I used different remedies but it remained for Doan's Kidney Pills to give me relief. Doan's have my highest endorsement."

A LASTING EFFECT.

On July 15, 1918, Mrs. Mayes said: "The benefit Doan's Kidney Pills brought me has been lasting. I have had no return of kidney trouble since I last recommended them." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Mayes had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Experts or Theorists—Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

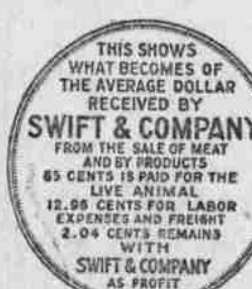

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.
